1st Rule: Check your mood.

Do not post or message when you are angry, stressed or upset.

2nd Rule: Try to remain anonymous

Keep your private information and photographs private; use a secure email address or screen name; when chatting use a nickname different from your screen name.

3rd Rule: If you met online, don't meet in person.

Online friendships make it easy for some to pretend that they are someone they are not.
